NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-EIGHT

Foreword

What is the Spirit of N.A.M. Hospital School of Nursing

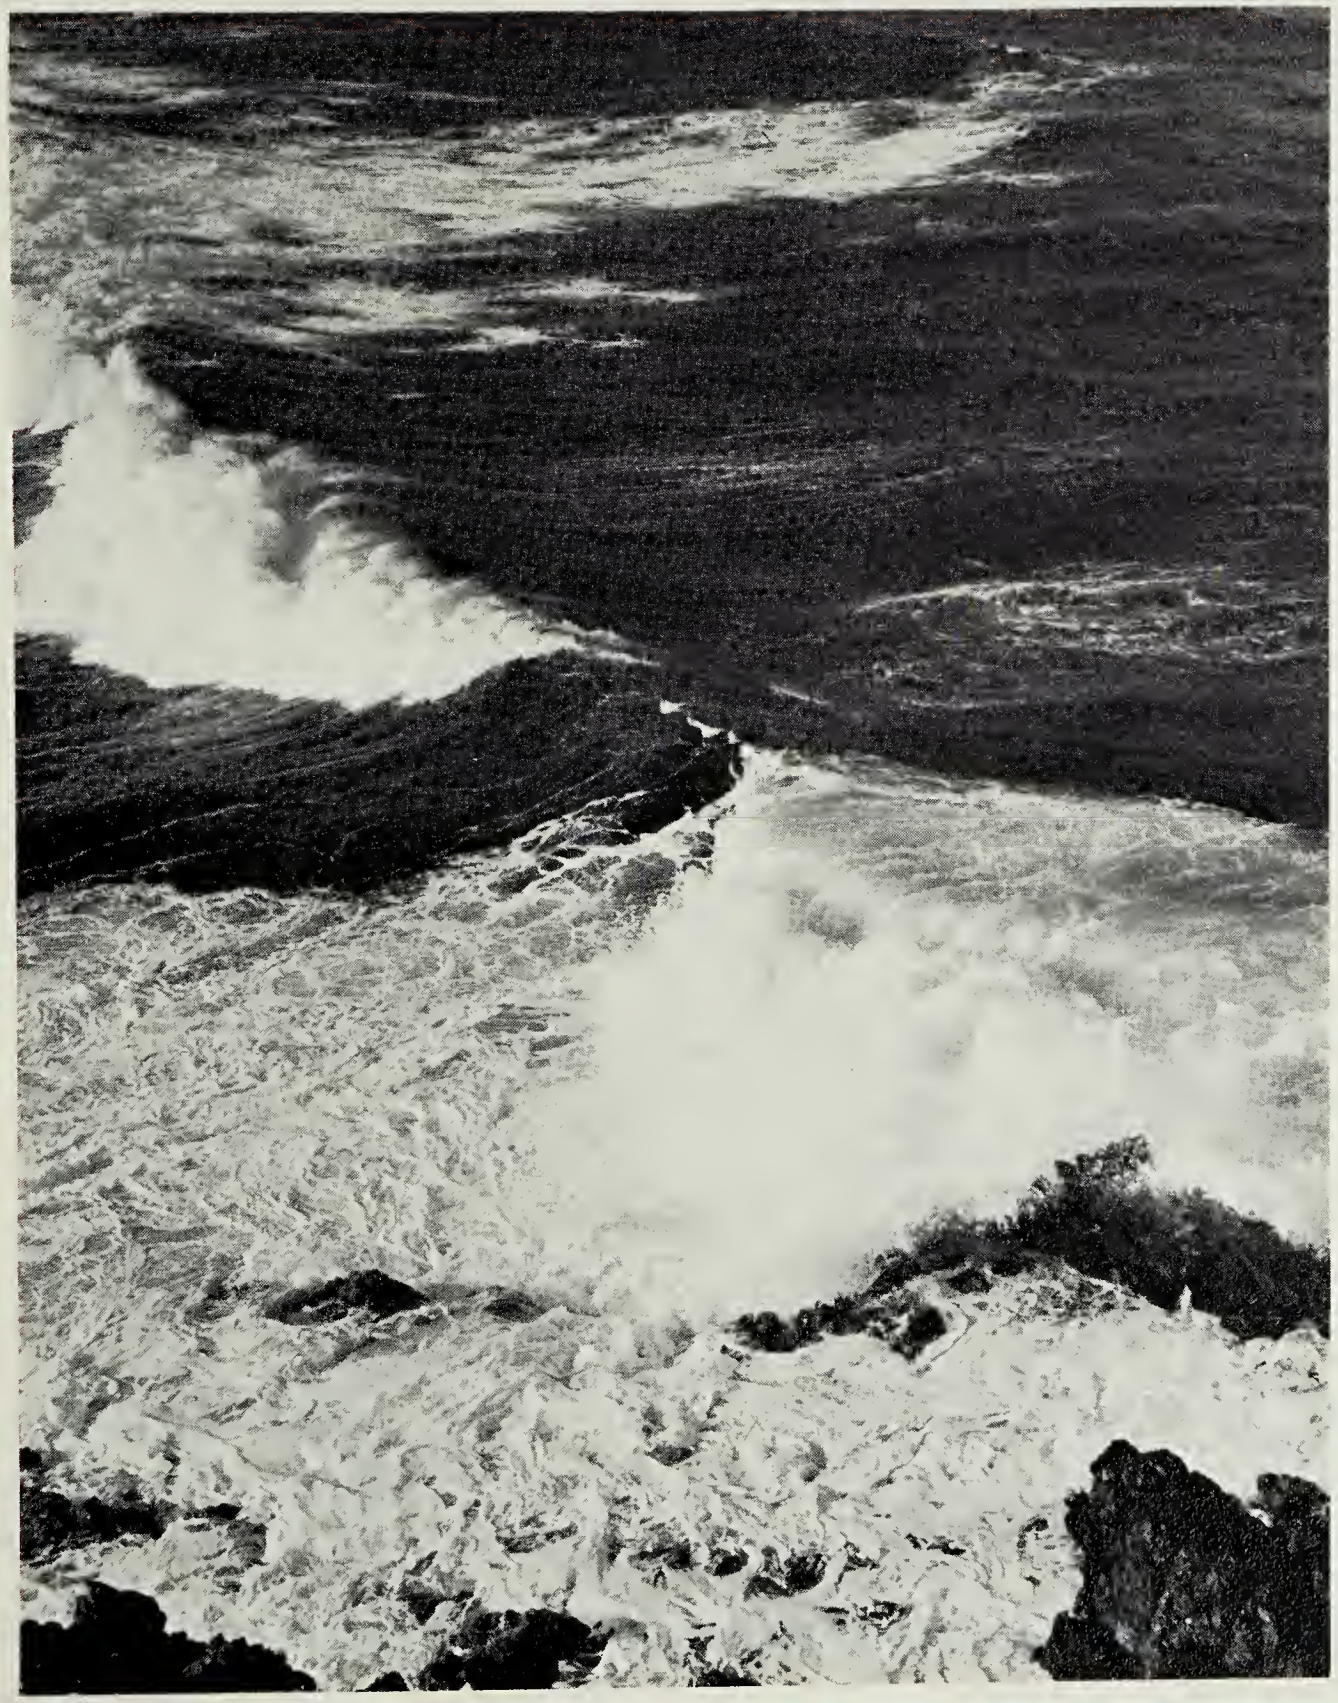
It is a student's enthusiasm when undertaking new challenges and the gratification found in a job well done.

It is the beginning of an earnest search for knowledge, one which will continue a lifetime.

It is the appreciation of the guidance and understanding given by the Faculty.

It is the formation of friendships that will last always, whether they become a part of our daily lives or exist only in our memories.

This is the Spirit of N.A.M. Hospital School of Nursing.



Dedication

We, the Class of 1968, hereby dedicate our annual to Mrs. Mary M. Warren. Throughout the 10 years of service she has dedicated her time and given of herself in opening many doors to the field of nursing.

In our association with her, she has been encouragement, inspiration and especially our friend.

We would also like to honor our parents who have made this year possible.

On September 11, 1967, we, the class of '68, began our careers as nurses and thus have continued to advance. Many times we have experienced doubts as to whether we had chosen the right field of endeavor. But now we know what a rewarding experience nursing can be. Nursing is one of the greatest professions upon which a young girl can embark. Trials and tribulations are experienced by all and in every profession.

As president of the Class, I would encourage anyone seeking advice about nursing to enter it whole-heartedly, if they are very interested in people, especially the ill or infirm.

As long as there are people, there will be nurses.

IN APPRECIATION

Four things a nurse must learn to do
If she would keep her record true:
To think, without confusion, clearly...
To love her fellow-man sincerely...
To act from honest motives purely...
To trust in God and Heaven securely.
